BIDS RUN HIGH
FOR PUNCHBOWL
CAMP BUILDING

With an offer of $4528 for the administration building at the new training camp on Punchbowl, the J. G. Correa Construction Company was low among bids submitted Saturday at the armory. Other bids ranged slightly higher, the topmost being $5025.

Besides the Correa Construction Company, bidding firms were C. C.
Cunha, J. L. Young, and the Honolulu Planning Mill.

It was pointed out in the bid submitted by the Honolulu Planning Mill that several details had been left out of the building, such as lighting and sewer equipment. As the estimate on the work was only $3500, today's lowest bid was a surprise to the officials in that it was more than $1000 higher than had been expected. With several details still to add to the work, it is pointed out by those in close touch with it that the building may cost considerably more than any bid submitted today. The bids have been taken under advisement.

In the United States in the year just passed 35,000 workers were killed and 2,000,000 others injured by accidents that could have been averted, to say nothing of 3,000,000 persons incapacitated temporarily by sickness due to occupational diseases.

The Pacific Steam Navigation company has recently purchased from the Salvador Railway company the passenger and freight steamers Acapulco and Salvador and will conduct a fresh service between Panama and Santa Cruz, Mexico.

DELIVERIES OF
SUGAR QUICKLY
CARRIED AWAY

That there are few offerings of refined sugar and a steady demand for both refined and raw, thereby giving a sound foundation to the market statements contained in the Market Review of Nevers & Callaghan of 99 Wall street in their sugar market review recently which is as follows:

The market continued its upward trend during this week, late sales of prompt shipment Cubas at 5 7/16c 96 deg. basis c.f.f. showing 3/16c advance over the spot quotation at the close of last week and establishing a new high level for this campaign. The general situation seems thoroughly sound and the steady rise in value can be chiefly attributed to the persistent inquiry by Europe for refined sugar for export and raws for Cuba, the desire of the local trade to extend their purchases of refined and the constantly increasing prices which speculators have been willing to pay for raws. To these most important factors may be added the rapid ending of the Cuban grinding season and the limited tonnage available for shipment of Cubas to Atlantic ports. Furthermore, Cuba has already sold sufficient sugars to make a firm position possible. At the opening of the market, after the Easter holidays, offerings of Cubas were extremely moderate at 5 1/2c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. and sales of about 34,000 bags for May shipment to refiners and operators at this basis cleaned the market of all offerings at this price, and holders immediately advanced their views to 5 7/16c and 5 1/2c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. for Cubas and 6 0/16c to 6 1/16c and 6 2/16c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. for Porto Ricans.

Around these levels an irregular market resulted and sales were effected on the same day to local refiners of two separate parcels of Porto Ricans, both for April shipment, at 6 1/16c and then 6 2/16c basis 96 deg. c.f.f., while following a sale of a cargo of Cubas for April shipment at 5 1/2c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. to a refiner, operators paid 5 7/16c for cargo lots and 5 1/2c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. for smaller parcels of Cubas for May shipment, these buyers also securing 10,000 bags Cubas for June shipment at 5 1/2c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. An outport refiner then paid 6 2/16c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. Boston for a cargo of Porto Ricans for April shipment. These sales did not take care of a small accumulation of nearby Cubas that were still offering at 5 7/16c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. nor of further offerings of Porto Ricans for May shipment at 6 2/16c basis 96 deg. c.f.f., and on account of the indifference being shown by local refiners, the market hesitated slightly. However, upon the receipt of a cable from Messrs.
Guma-Mejer announcing heavy general rains in Cuba interfering with grinding operations and further reducing the number of centrals operating, coming in the wake of news from Washington that President Wilson had signed the bill repealing the free sugar clause of the tariff act, the market suddenly assumed a firmer appect when refiners paid the asking price of 5 7/16c 96 deg. c.f.f. for Cubas afloat and for April shipment, 5 1/2c basis 96 deg. c.f.f. for Cubas for May and June shipments and 6 2/16c basis c.f.f. for Porto Ricans for May shipment, clearing the market of all offerings of both Cubas and Porto Ricans at these levels and leaving only a few scattered parcels of Cubas for May shipment still offering at 5 1/2c basis 96 deg. c.f.f.

The weekly cable on Tuesday from Cuba reported receipts of 137,215 tons and 162 centrals graindng as compared to 138,000 tons receipts and 176 centrals at work at the corresponding date last year. Today 153 centrals are in operation and the rainy season has commenced.

The higher market for raws and the continued efforts of Europe and the domestic trade to obtain granulated, caused refiners to successively advance their prices during the week, until at the close Arbuckle Bros., Federal S. R. Co. and the Warner S. R. Co. are quoting 7 5/16c less 2 per cent., and all others 7 4/16c less 2 per cent., as against closing quotations of last week of 7 2/16c and 7 3/16c less 2 per cent.
Refined for export is quoted at 6 5/16c to 6 5/16c net cash in bond, f.o.b., on which basis some few small lots have been sold during the week.

The trading in options during the week reached a total of 7,000 tons.
Closing quotations today are: May 5 4/16c and 5 5/16c, June 5 4/16c and 5 5/16c, July 5 5/16c and 5 6/16c, August 5 5/16c and 5 6/16c, and September 5 5/16c and 5 6/16c.

Shooting has become a popular sport in China, and the clay pigeon clubs have large memberships.
